Lighting in the 21st Century - A Guide to Successfully Navigating the Adoption of LED with Bob Preston, LC and Mark Lien, LC (IES)

Thursday, September 21, 2017 at 9:00am – 11:30am
Cost: $99 early bird price, $139 after August 21

LED lighting is here to stay. But there is still much uncertainty about this new technology. This special CapitalTristate seminar helps fill the knowledge gap. The seminar will feature an enlightening, thought-provoking presentation by renowned speaker, educator, and lighting advocate, Mark Lien, LC with the Illuminating Engineering Society. His presentation may change the way you think about LED and lighting. In addition, we will cover important, specific topics to help you to take full advantage of the energy saving and performance benefits that LED offers. Capital Tristate is pleased to offer this opportunity to help you navigate the LED revolution.
